October 2026

Latest news

Last year's winner photographed Tehran's Pardis Town. © Maho

Luis Ferreira Alves Photography Award 2026–27 Open Call
Submission deadline 1 January 2027

Created in tribute to the Portuguese architectural photographer Luis Ferreira Alves, the Award explores the relationship between photography, architecture, the city and territory. Shortlisted works will be exhibited in Porto and the winner will take home €10,000. Valeria Carullo, the RIBA Photographs curator and leader of many fantastic C20 tours, sits on the jury.
More info

Leave a Legacy

As an independent charity, leaving a legacy to the Society – however large or small – can make a huge and lasting impact across the most important areas of our work.

If you wish to remember the Society in your will and would like some assistance, we can arrange a service help to write or amend your will free of charge.

Click here for more information

